

GEO.ca ▸ GEO News

GEO News

Explore, discover and read about what's current and innovative in GEO across Canada.

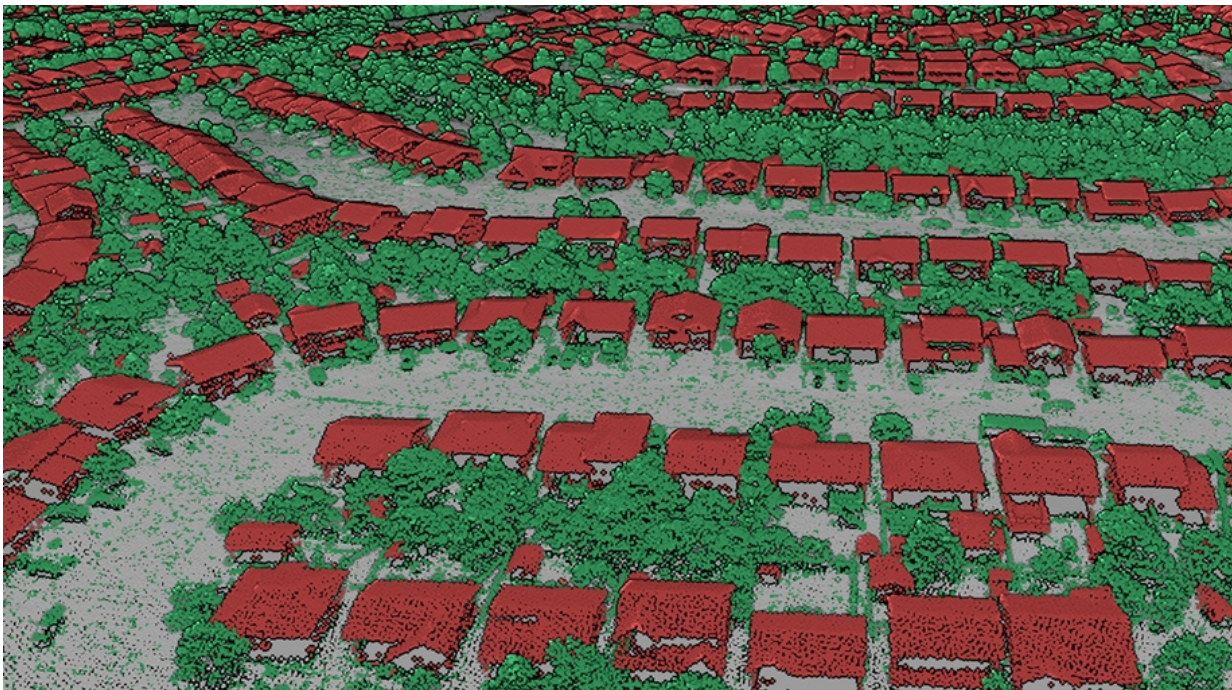

June 15, 2023

Flood Mapping in Your Province or Territory

Provinces and territories are responsible for undertaking flood mapping and addressing flood hazards. Find flood mapping resources specific to your province or territory.

Learn more >

January 11, 2023

New LiDAR Point Clouds Product

Canada as you've never seen it before! This new dataset contains all LiDAR point cloud datasets acquired so far by Natural Resources Canada, covering an area close to 60,000 km2.

Learn more >

May 10, 2022

Floods

Discover key geospatial data and information used to actively monitor spring ice break-up and flooding and provide critical, near real-time information to improve authorities' situational awareness and keep Canadians safe.

Learn more >

November 30, 2021

Atlas of Canada – The World

Find our newly release World Map! The World is a general reference political map focused on the names and international boundaries of sovereign and non-sovereign countries. The information is portrayed using the Winkel II projection at a scale of 1:29,000,000.

Learn more >

March 1, 2021

Recognizing Women with Canadian Place Names

Place names have an important role in recognizing, preserving and strengthening history and culture. This interactive map showcases locations across Canada named after women.

Learn more >

Learn

- About Us
- Getting Started
- Behind the Scenes
- Communities
- Contributors
- Discover the Value of GEO
- Flood Mapping
- GEO News
- Map Gallery

Discover By Theme

- Administration
- Economy
- Emergency
- Environment
- Imagery
- Infrastructure
- Legal
- Science
- Society
- Foundation Data

Discover By Content Type

- API
- Application
- Collection
- Dataset
- Community
- Service

Discover By Organization

- Government of Canada
- Provinces and Territories
- GeoBase